Welcome to the Maine Blues Festival 2015!

On behalf of Maine's own very special blues artists, the Town of Naples, local and regional supporters, and our small army of volunteers, we wish to thank each and every one of you for attending this, the ninth Maine Blues Festival. We continue to grow each year and we're especially proud of being known as an affordable opportunity for music lovers to enjoy an incredible amount of unique music - and all in one beautiful area.

This year's Festival offers patrons more Maine blues performances throughout Naples than ever before, along with our ever-popular free shuttle service, family-friendly environment, artisans and food vendors on the Village Green, and friendly shops and eateries.

We exist only because of the dedicated and generous support of our sponsors and advertisers, as well as the dedicated patronage from folks like you. Please take a moment to look at the list of sponsors for 2015, and if you get the chance, be sure to let them know that you appreciate their support in bringing Maine blues home again to Naples.

We now plan year-round for this day when thousands of spectators will visit Naples to hear the unmistakable sounds of Maine's own red-hot blues music: Delta blues, Chicago blues, West Coast blues - saxophones, harmonicas, and deep gravely-toned voices, all wafting through the air, all with the backdrop and laid-back atmosphere of beautiful Naples, Maine - the Heart of the Lakes Region.

Thank You!

We Couldn't Do It Without You

The Maine Blues Festival would like to thank all our tireless volunteers for their dedicated commitment to this year's event. Their sacrifice of time makes it possible to bring the festival to you at a reasonable cost. As you may know most of the proceeds go into bringing you the quality of performers that you have been used to in the past nine years. A portion of the proceeds also go back into the communities to support Naples Scholarship Foundation and local school music programs, carrying the love of the Blues to a new generation of performers.

Our volunteers give us greater ability to reinvest your ticket dollars into future events. We are looking forward to the 2016 Maine Blues Festival and we would love to give each of you an opportunity to be involved with the festival at a volunteer level. In exchange for their time, our volunteers receive free admission as well as other benefits that vary from year to year. If you would like to volunteer for the 2016 MBF, please contact us at Volunteers@MaineBluesFestival.com or visit us on Facebook.

Keep the Blues alive by joining the Maine Blues Society!

The Maine Blues Society was established in 1989. Our mission is to encourage, promote and expand the enjoyment, development, performance and preservation of the blues. Our intent and purpose is not only to support the blues as a musical idiom but as an art form, culture, profession and as a foundation of America's heritage. The Maine Blues Society organizes several events each year calling on our members for help. We participate in events such as the Maine Blues Festival, International Blues Challenge (by holding an annual "Road To Memphis" showcase) as well as sponsoring the "Blues In The Schools" program available throughout Maine.

Mark Persky, Grand Master of Ceremonies

Radio and television personality Mark Persky remains quite arguably the most recognizable voice in Maine broadcast media and is a passionate devotee of the blues. He has been with the Festival since its inception in 2006, and also serves as the MBF Official Spokesperson.

Annamarie Smith

Annamarie Smith has been carving out her niche in the Northern New England music scene since 1997. Her pleasingly eclectic style is built on her unique vocals, subtle finger picking, and uncanny slide guitar licks. In addition to her original material, she mines the rich history of the blues ranging from early roots through today's artists, making them all unmistakably her own.

Beam and Fink

Gravelly vocals, melodic harmonica and thumping guitar make for simple, soulful acoustic music. Mike Beam and Jeremy Fink play a stripped-down and lighthearted brand of Country Blues. Their mix of unique songs from the genre's rich history and vintage-style originals reveal an appreciation and enthusiasm for the roots of American music.

The Bellamy Jazz Band

The Bellamy Jazz Band plays a loose, jammin' Chicago-style jazz ranging from Preservation Hall to prehistoric swing, jazz ballads, dance hall tunes, and just a suggestion that they have heard the rock and roll. Together for over 28 years, they play New Orleans and Chicago Jazz and swing with a wild vitality and loving irreverence. A Maine favorite, this eight piece band has won popularity awards eight years in a row.

Big G and the Rhino

Glen "Big G." Rogers, Gary "Rhino" Searles & Matt "theBass" Cornell combine our passion for music to bring Traditional and Contemporary Blues to the ears of our friends and fans from Maine and elsewhere. While keeping tradition alive, we add our own spices to make it something a little different.

Black Cat Road

Don "Slowpoke Johnson" Reed - Chris "Krank" Hartogh - Jessica "Jessie Mae" Hines - Kate "Ain't Got No Nickname" Seavey, and Steve "The Iceman" Bailey are five experienced, musically inclined people, each dorky but adorable in their own special way. They tell corny jokes in between classic and original blues tunes and some venues have actually called them back.... for money!! They're THAT good!!

The Blind Lemons

The Blind Lemons, with front man, multi-instrumentalist and all-around "Force of Nature" Tom Renino at the helm, the Lemons were there at the beginning of the blues scene at the now legendary Raoul's Roadside Attraction. This band of seasoned pros helped kick-start the blues in Maine over twenty years ago!

The Blood Orange Martinis

Chosen to represent Maine in Memphis, TN, for the 2015 International Blues Challenge, the Blood Orange Martinis formed a few years ago when guitarist Trent Souder and harp player Lauren Williams joined forces with bass player Phil Pitula. Together they form a trio that has all the driving, electric power of a full band and the dynamics of a small group.

Blue Steel Express

This year the 'Express will again include several special guests in a wide-ranging "blues revue" showcase! Formed in 1993, the 'Express is comprised of MBF Co-Founder Kevin Kimball, Deb Danuski, Bub Lynch, and Don Whitcomb. The band features tight arrangements of blues standards and original material built around Deb's vocals, Kevin's slide playing, and classy presentation.

Blues Hounds

The Blues Hounds are a favorite in the Lakes Region, having made regular appearances at Bray's Brewpub and other area venues for many years. A Maine band, they start with the blues, but blend in some smokin' blues/rock and country/rock as well. They feature tight arrangements of modern blues and surprising interpretations of classic blues. The Blues Hounds personify the idea of a "Blues Party!"

Blues In The Works

What do you get when you team up three BIW workers with three other seasoned musicians? Blues In the Works! With a triple-threat guitar section, this group has an "in your face" style. The line-up features Sue Beauchesne, Lead vocals; Pay Hynes, guitar & lead vocals, Keith Hart, guitar & vocals, Ed Eldredge, guitar & vocals, Jim Palmer, bass & vocals and Larry Beauchesne, drums.

The Blues Mafia

A blues offer you can't refuse: The Blues Mafia is a rockin' 6 piece blues band featuring funk, swing, and Latin flavors with Kristin "The Boss" Chute on vocals and electric violin, Ron "No-You're-The-Boss" Gill on guitar, drummer Eric Lawson, bassist Ryan Halliburton, sax man Bruce Couillard Jr., and Duane "The Harp Man" Asdourian. This band covers classic blues from Albert King to Ike Turner through Sugar Pie DeSanto and Sippie Wallace.

Brad Hooper

In 2009, Brad Hooper took his talent off the farm and onto the stage. (He finally learned how to play guitar last Tuesday at 4 p.m.) Hooper has grown into a voice all his own. He writes and performs songs that are raw and intuitive; lyrics fueled by years of hard-mileage and universal-truths. Hooper's voice is "smooth like whiskey, sweet like an old guitar." When Brad takes the stage he spins a musical tale as if it's the last thing he will ever do!

Brookside Blues

Brookside Blues Band is the part time blues project of Auburn based guitarist Ken Goodman. Well established in local rock circles, Ken is comfortable performing classic rock, country, and jam band styles but his first musical love is the blues. For this year's Maine Blues Fest Ken will be backed by his current cover band 4Play and will share guitar duties with fellow blues man George Stamboules.

D.W. Gill

"Harmonica Bluesman" DW Gill started playing harmonica up in the billboard scaffolding, down by the train tracks in Winslow, Maine, around 1966. His first harmonica cost $1.75. Since then DW has traveled the tracks from Chicago to Amsterdam, playing his Traditional-Style blues. His solo performances have him sitting down in a chair, tapping his feet and chugging the harmonica, accordion, and singing a variety of traditional and original Blues compositions.

Delta Knights

The Delta Knights were one of the first bands to represent the State of Maine in the International Blues Challenge in 1996. Led by founder Rob Babson and propelled by Sandy Pardee on bass, Brian Hodgman, drums, and Darren Whitney on sax, the 'Knights remain one of the most sought-after bands in the state.

Denny Breau

Legendary guitar master Denny Breau is the gold-standard by which other guitarists measure themselves. His recording credits include numerous albums by national blues acts, and he is one of the most in-demand guitar teachers in the state. Once again Denny offers a live-performance must-see for musicians and blues fans alike.

Downeast Soul Coalition

Back for its third appearance at the Maine Blues Festival, this high-energy, groove-driven quintet serves up its own fresh blend of blues, R&B, soul and funk. DSC is anchored by bassist/frontman Scott Morrison and features guitarist Nelson Nadeau, saxophonist Kate Campbell Strauss, keyboardist Mike Vaughan and drummer Nancy Durham. If Tab Benoit and The Neville Brothers picked up Albert Collins on their way to a session at Stax Records, it might have sounded a little like this!

Dr. Dann and the Brothers Blues Band

The Brothers Blues Band celebrates the tradition of Chicago style electric blues. Fronted by Dr Dann on vocals and guitar with the able support of brother Blind Davis on lead guitar the band draws deep from traditional blues. These guys love their craft and know that having fun is an important part of the recipe. No need to worry about the blues when the Doctor is in the house!

Ed Murphy

Blues scholar Ed Murphy was bitten by the blues bug after hearing his first Leadbelly record and then going to hear Dave VanRonk play at the Gaslight Cafe in Greenwich Village. Fifty years later, he continues his love affair with early twentieth-century roots music. Whether playing blues, ragtime or early hillbilly music, Ed plays 12-string guitar and 6-string slide guitar in a personal style that is based in listening to his musical heroes. He has performed at MBF numerous times as part of an ensemble; this year marks Ed's first appearance as a solo artist.

The Forest City Drifters

Forest City Drifters are three of Maine's busiest musicians...Duane Edwards, upright bass, Mike Murphy, drums, and Mike Hayward, guitar and vocals, playing the best of postwar urban blues styles including Magic Sam, Otis Rush, Freddy King, Guitar Slim etc. John Morgan, of New Beat Review says, "Mike Hayward's band plays high energy guitar based blues with a brass knuckle tone delivered at full throttle."

jc and the ACES www.jeffchristiansenmusic.com

With jc (Jeff Christiansen) it's all about a great song with a vocal delivered straight to you, certified 100% free-range with no filler. The band's tunes cover roots music from blues to R&B to swing to roots rock. Along with jc on vocals and guitar, the ACE line-up includes: Steve Hamblen - drums, Rick Coakley - bass and vocals, along with the mighty, mighty horn stylings of Michelle Kingston on trumpet and Dave DeBree on sax.

Jeff n' Jere

It's semi-rural, semi-urban blues time with (jc) Jeff Christiansen - guitar, mandolin and vocal and Jere (Jeh-ree) "LunchPail" DeWaters on harp, washboard and vocal. Jere is a guy who brings his lunch bucket to work every day and gets the job done. jc puts his pants on one leg at a time, without hopping around.

Jimmy and the Soulcats www.jimmyandthesoulcats.com

With more than 20 years at the top of New England's music scene, a serious road history performing throughout the U.S. and Canada, and two internationally distributed CD releases, this band is sheer roots and blues enjoyment with a sound that speaks in world-class tones. If you've seen Jimmy Junkins play, you've seen a rarity: someone who plays for the sheer love of music!

JLD Project

The JLD PROJECT plays a collaboration of originals that range from old school blues to 70s blues rock, and features a great range of vocals and cool groove make this a band to see! Band members include: Tom Dube - Electric Guitar/Vocals, Pete Ladd - Acoustic Guitar/Vocals, David Hodgkins - Bass, Mike Hall - Acoustic Guitar, and Dennis Buzzell - Drums

Johnny and the Blues Dogz

Johnny Rousseau and his Blues Dogz are ready to tear it up. JR's powerful, raunchy harp playing is the perfect complement to his vocals, and he delivers every story with passion. His long time sidekick, Greg Soper delivers great guitar licks from the soul. This year, they are backed by the great rhythm duo of Don Whitcomb and Steve Kaulback. You can expect to see a guest player, too! Chicago-style Blues, west coast swing, and some solid blues/rock will keep your feet moving all night. Watch out, the enthusiasm is contagious!

The Juke Joint Devils

The Juke Joint Devils are an "old school" jump and swing blues band whose musical style draws heavily from the Chicago, Memphis and New Orleans blues music of the 1950s and the more modern "West Coast" style of today. Founding member Tommy O'Connell, vocals and blues harp, was a finalist in the 2011 International Blues Challenge, in Memphis, Tennessee. He's backed up by the smoking guitar work of Stefan Iris, a 20 year veteran of the Boston blues scene, Sean Bowman on upright bass, and blues veteran Johnny Moran, who is not only a drummer but also as an accomplished guitarist.

Lake Region High School Skazz Cats/LRHS Blues Band

In July of 2008, LRHS Band Director Paul Greenstone heard the Mighty Mighty Boston's at the Cumberland County Civic Center in Portland. He thought, "We can do that." Thus were the SkazzCats born. As the band's repertoire increased, it has performed at local concerts, basketball games, in Boston, and for special events. This year's band features our new alumni Elise Gianattasio and Galen McLaughlin. This is our fifth appearance at the Maine Blues Festival.

As part of the Maine Blues Festival's education outreach and through a coordinated effort with the Maine Blues Society, this blues band comprised of entirely of Lake Region High School students and is the result of the Blues In The Schools program, an education initiative of the (national) Blues Foundation. Special thanks go to MBF Committee member Ron Gill who spearheaded this project.

Larry Peterson Project

With 54 years behind the kit, Larry Peterson has seen and done it all! Originally from Norfolk, Virginia; he has since toured or played with some of the finest acts in the country including, Wilson Williams and The Platters, Bo Diddley, Joe Houston, Tab Benoit, Larry Coryell, and has shared moments and stories with Aaron Neville, BB King, Dr. John and Greg Allman. Larry's mission is to carry on the very important work of Mr. Louis Armstrong, the Ambassador of Goodwill, to encourage acceptance, tolerance and understanding for ALL people. He and his band are happy to bring the sound of "Nawlins" Blues to the Maine Blues Festival this year.

Luther James and the River Kings

Luther James is the traditional "starting pitcher" for the Maine Blues Festival with his own distinctive brand of "slow burn" electric blues. The River Kings are all-star blues veterans Bub Lynch on drums, brother Marty Lynch on bass, Tom Renino on keys and harp, Jeff Wright on harp, and Bob Rosenbaum on guitar.

Mama's Boomshack

Mama's Boomshack could best be described as the lovechild of James Brown and Sly Stone—a 7-piece band playing a mixture of funk, soul and blues music. Based out of Portland, Maine, the band has been together since 2011. In February 2014, they went into the studio with producer Jonathan Wyman and the result was Speed Of Soul, a 9-song manifesto of funky soul music—a style that pulls from the multiple influences of the band members. Their album is currently available at shows and online: (www.mamasboomshack.com).

Mark Miller and Friends www.markguitarmiller.com

Mark Miller has been playing guitar and belting out the blues for decades. This legendary performer (and two-time winner of the prestigious Lenny Breau Award!) inspires and captivates the audiences and musicians alike with dazzling and emotional guitar work that only comes from a true master, and blazes the trail for twenty-first century blues guitar. Mark will include several special guests in his performances this year, including vocalist Maine native Rick Tompkins who worked with the late Levon Helm in Woodstock, NY, 15 year old guitar phenom Cam Pulaski, and another master of the guitar, the legendary Bob Fillion.

Mary Murphy

Maine native singer/songwriter/indie artist Mary Murphy sings from her soul to yours, accompanying herself on piano, blues harp and at times guitar and other instruments from Maine to South Carolina. She performs originals, covers select blues artists, and stylizes songs of other genres by weaving a web of jazzy blues around them.

Matt and the Barnburners www.mattandthebarnburners.com

Matt & the Barnburners are a two time winner of the "Road to Memphis Competition" and a longtime fixture of the Maine Blues Scene. Frontman Matt Bilodeau on harp & vocals delivers unbridled passion & energy along with a sincere commitment to the Blues that is irresistible. Backed by Dave Cook on bass guitar, Kenny Chapman on drums & vocals, and Greg "Daddy-O" Hazzard on guitar & vocals, Matt & the Barnburners deliver a high-energy mix of all your favorite Blues classics with a unique & tasteful twist. "Feel the Heat!"

Maxwell Street

Maxwell Street members met each other at a blues jam. After spending many Saturday afternoons playing for fun in a heated garage, BOOM! Out came a solid group with a Chicago West Side blues feel. Genuine, authentic and gritty!

Memphis Lightning

Soaring high above the status quo, Memphis Lightning brings an electrifying and exciting take on America roots music. The band features Grammy-nominated drummer Darren "Big Red" Thiboutot, Maine Blues Society "Road to Memphis" winner bassist Rick "Slow Driver" McLennan, and Darren "LD" Thiboutot Jr. on guitar. So get on board with Memphis Lightning - they're a force to be reckoned with!

Mike and the Mojo

2015 Road To Memphis winners Mike and the Mojo is made up of Mike Schools of Portland, Maine and Chris Hamer of Scarborough. Their music features songs from BB King, Stevie Ray Vaughan, and Buddy Guy as well as a uniquely crafted originals. Mike and the Mojo will proudly represent Maine in the International Blues Challenge held in Memphis in 2016.

New Blues Revue

New Blues Revue is the traditional host of the MBF All-Star Jam. Led by Jerry Smith on guitar and vocals, the New Blues Revue also includes seasoned pros Denny Breau, Jim Palmer, and John Donaho. Together this crew will set the stage for the best part of the night: The Tenth Annual All-Star Blues Jam at Bray's Brew Pub.

Poke Chop and Other White Meats www.poke-chop.com

Bandleader, Harmonicat, vocalist, and lead guitarist extraordinaire Ron Gill (a.k.a. "Poke Chop") has been playing music for over forty years, works over 100 dates a year and hosts several blues jams around the area. The band features a rock-solid blues veterans Thom "The Hurricane" Hanes on harp, Chad "Lamb Chop" Thorne on bass, and Marc Perez on drums. This outfit lays down a groove that hasn't been heard since the last time the Bush Doctor was conjuring up a potent gris-gris down on the bayou!

Poor Howard and Bullfrog

"Poor Howard" Stith has been performing for over thirty years across the U.S., Europe and Japan, entertaining audiences with his dazzling guitar, heartfelt voice, and an endless supply of anecdotes. He has shared the stage with such notable blues performers as John Jackson, Archie Edwards and Peg Leg Sam. Mike "Bullfrog" Rogers is a forty year veteran whose styles range from folk to blues, and he has opened for such performers as John Hammond, Luther "Guitar" Johnson and Emmie Lou Harris, and has appeared on over thirty CDs.

The Preservation Blues Band www.preservationbluesband.com

"It's just the Blues, man." Front man Peter Michelini's ripping guitar style showcases a wide range of blues sounds from Delta to Kansas City to Chicago. A solid rhythm section lays the foundation with Chris Truslow on bass and Bill Petcher on drums. Guitarist Andy Brown is the newest member of the band and brings over 30 years experience. They'll be performing blues originals and classics from Howlin Wolf, Lightnin Hopkins, John Lee Hooker and others.

Ragged Jack

High energy roots rockabilly trio Ragged Jack has been burning up Maine stages for over three years with their tight old-school sound and on-stage acrobatics. The world-class guitar wizardry of Corrie Bonnevie, upright bass and yodeling of Holly Marie, and the solid grooves of Maine blues scene veteran drummer Tom "the H-Bomb" Hines are sure to drive the excitement to the stratosphere! Joining them again this year will be harp-layer Pat Brennan.

The Roy-Hudson Band

The Roy-Hudson Band is all about roadhouse boogie on a Saturday night. Led by veteran musicians Linda Roy on keyboards and vocals and Dan Hudson on guitar, slide guitar and vocals, this outfit is "blues with the bark still on!" Long time favorites in west central Maine, the Roy-Hudson Band will boogie until YOU drop!

Samuels, Midgley and Trippe

Expect nothing but some downhome country blues from these veteran musicians who have been performing individually for well over 30 years! You've got Kevin Midgley on guitar and vocals, Myron Samuels on harmonica, foot tambourine and vocals and Jeff Trippe on mandolin, guitar and vocals. Be sure and check these Blues roots musicians for some Delta, Piedmont and early Chicago Blues as these guys will surely pitch you a 'Wang Dang Doodle.'

Trailer Trash

Watch out for the dogs under the porch! Over the years, Trailer Trash has developed a faithful following for their own unique sound and showmanship; their performances are reminiscent of the raw energy of a roadhouse band of another era. A well-oiled combination featuring award-winning guitarist Paul Dube, Ellen Lindsey on upright bass, Eric Grenier on blues harp, and newest member Bob Rosenbaum on lead guitar, Trailer Trash combines high-caliber music craft and sly humor so that their audiences can almost see the chicken-wire!

Advertising with Turner Publishing has been a great choice for our small business. They were incredibly helpful with designing and placing our ad.

They far exceeded our expectations in terms of the effort they put into helping us. A representative came right to our business to discuss options in a clear manner, and they did not pressure us into buying more than made sense for our business. They were also very easy to work with via email and the phone. We were quickly able to view the ad they skillfully designed for us. Many, many first time customers have come into the store because of the ad and the article, and our regulars enjoyed seeing us represented in print. We live in Litchfield, so our businesses do not have one local paper available to advertise in. Turner Publishing allowed us to get our name out in many towns at a very reasonable price. Sales are up thanks to Turner Publishing!
